Coach Belknap's Manhawks participated in the usual seven games, but were unable to obtain a single score from any of their opponents. The local boys played scrappy and spirited football in each game but were unable to conquer their slightly heavier foes.

The Manhawk line was composed of "Mike" Chrystal at center, Al Eberhart and John Swift as guards, Captain Dick Burt and Ed DuBois as tackles and at end were Milton Joslyn and Bob Bissell. At the backfield positions were Bob Leighton, Gordon Bechelli, Allyn Carrothers, and Roger McIntosh. As the season progressed, Nyle Bergstrand was shifted to center and "Mike" Chrystal took Bob Leighton's position. Albert Carrothers also replaced John Swift at a guard position and did a very efficient job of halting his opponents.

As the Armistice Day game ended, the following seniors had played their last high school football: Burt, DuBois, Chrystal, Bechelli, Albert Carrothers, Allyn Carrothers, and T. White.

Basketball

Back Row: Winters, E. Steffens, Alb. Carrothers, Chrystal, Mr. Belknap, Timmons, Rector, Barker, Sloan, Miller

Front Row: Bergstrand, Bissell, Bechelli, Mullan, Leighton, Eberhart

Coach Belknap and his assistant, Mr. Beckman, started the season with four letter men left from the previous season. The boys emerged from their tough schedule with five wins and ten losses, a record of which the players can not be ashamed.

During this season a "Believe it or Not" fact occurred. The Manhawks lost eight games by three points or less. Five of these narrow losses were by one point, and two of these five 1-point games occurred during one week, our players bowing to Wilson of Cedar Rapids and Vinton on Tuesday and Friday nights.

The Manhawks entered the County Tournament, defeated Dundee in the first game, but were defeated by Greeley in the next contest determined by a lone tally.

The Manchester team journeyed to Strawberry Point to participate in the sectional tournament, and met Elkader in their first game. They were again defeated by the one point jinx.

Team members who will graduate are: Albert Carrothers, Chrystal, Bechelli, and Mullan.

Ted Winters and Russell Miller acted as athletic managers during the year.

Coach Blair's junior high team has completed another very successful season. They won five games and lost four, which gives them a rating of .556. Not a bad record for boys just beginning their basketball career!

The starting line-up at the beginning of the season found Hatch at center, McIntosh, Fenton and Roloff, forwards, Corll and Arnold at guard. Soon after the season started, Cloud took over the forward duties with McIntosh.

As only seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys may play, the team will lose the following players next year: Cloud, Arnold, Fenton, Traner, Corll, Noble, and Kratzer. However, the loss by the junior high will be the high school team's new gain.

At the home contest, Betty Jean Hunt, Sophie Baran, and Arlene Hansel won first place in their respective divisions. At the next contest, the Preliminary State Contest also held at Manchester, Betty Jean Hunt and Sophie Baran emerged victorious and they did the same at the Sub-district, held at Coggon. The Pre-district at Manchester, at which Sophie Baran again took first, gave her the privilege of competing in the District at West Union. At this contest, the last before the state, Miss Baran received second place. This is the best declam record of any M. H. S. student for many years.

Miss Virginia Hahne coached the members of the humorous and dramatic divisions, while Frank L. Gannon directed the oratorical speakers.

During the debate season, Manchester students participated in six practice tournaments held at West Waterloo, Luther, I.S.T.C. at Cedar Falls, Coe, Drake, and Elkader. In making these trips the students and their coach, Mr. Frank L. Gannon, traveled nearly 1,100 miles.

MOST NON-SCHOOL PEOPLE BELIEVE:

1. That teachers wear bow-ties and are absent-minded.
2. That football players get paid and live in luxury.
3. That school girls neck or don't have dates.
4. That school boys never wear hats, garters, or long woolies.
5. That teachers give athletes a "break" to keep them eligible.

AND---what makes it so silly, is that they're right!

Helen F.: "A good looking stranger kissed every girl at the party last night."

Mabel K.: "Gosh! How did he do it?"

Helen F.: "Very nicely!"

Mary Jane C.: "Snoop, have you been prowling through my diary again?"

Albert C.: "Sure, I've read it from lover to lover."

Maizie: "Mamma, Mamma! Come here and make Dale Steffens stop teasing me!"

Mamma: "What is he doing, dear?"

Maizie: "He's sitting on the other end of the sofa!"

Prof.: "I won't begin today's lecture until the room settles down."

Bill W.: "Go home and sleep it off, old man!"

E. Fishel: "Your'e thinner."

D. Rieck: "Yes, I've lost so much weight you can count my ribs."

E. Fishel: "Gee, thanks!"

Six foot three inch Bob Barnd applied for a job as life-guard. "Can you swim?" asked the official. "No, but I can wade to beat heck," said Bob.

B. Bissell: "Marry me and everything you want will be yours."

Sue Y.: "Oh, no it won't!"

B. Bissell: "Why not?"

Sue Y.: "I want Robert Taylor."

Joan E.: "Big boy, I'm the kind of girl that gets what she goes after!"

Alan B.: "Oh, yeah? What does that make me?"

Joan E.: "My husband!"

Milan Chrystal: "It's terribly warm, sir. Do you mind if I sit down?"

Mr. Howard: "Why, Milan, does the hot air bother you?"

Milan Chrystal: "Er--no, sir, go right on talking."

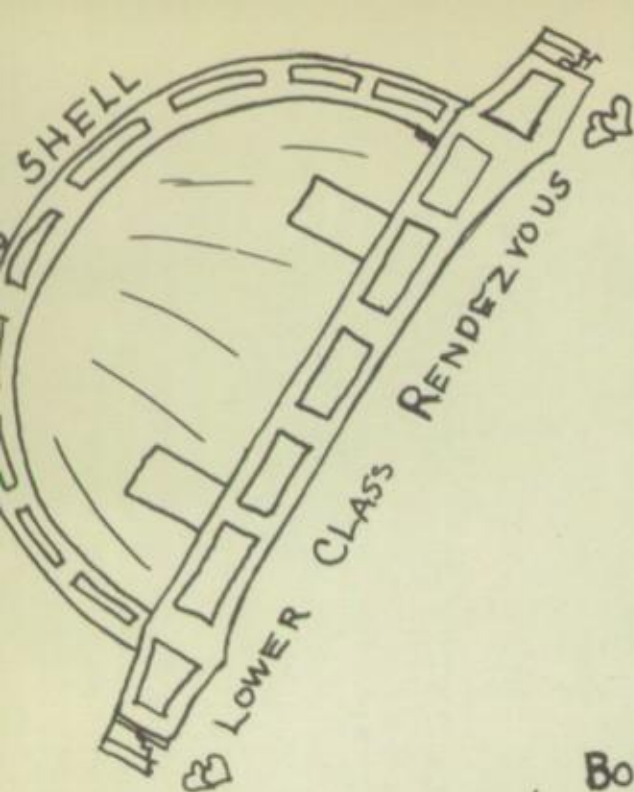

Mr. Odegard: "I believe you missed my class yesterday."

Stanley M.: "Oh, no I didn't, old man--not in the least."

Turk Burt: "Where do all the flies go in winter?"

Marian McNabb: "Search me, brother."

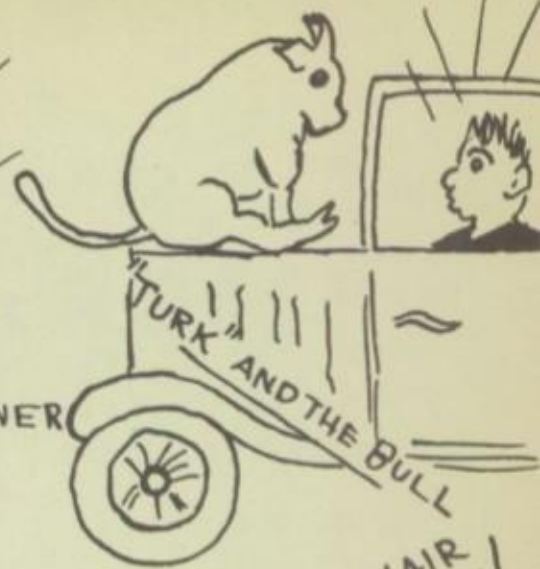

Turk: "No thanks; I just wanted to know."

Ray S.: "Because I picked her up on the streets."

It's a funny world. If a man gets money, he's a grafter. If he keeps it, he's a capitalist. If he spends it, he's a playboy. If he doesn't get it, he's a ne'er-do-well. If he doesn't try to get it, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working for it, he's a W.P.A. And if he accumulates it after a lifetime of hard work, he's a sucker!--Mr. Gannon.

Band

The Manchester Marching Band performed very creditably during the year, doing formation work at football and basketball games with the assistance of Earl Dunn, drum major, and Peggy Ann Roe and Janaan Haug, drum majorettes. The Marching Band also participated in a political rally held on the Luther College campus at Decorah, Iowa.

The Concert Band participated in the Sub-District Music Contest at Elkader and received a rating of excellent.

Among the instrumental groups and soloists, the woodwind quartette also received a rating of excellent at the Sub-District at Elkader. The following received a superior rating, and so qualified to compete in the District Contest at Monticello: Brass Sextette, Sousaphone solo by Leola Roller, Baritone solo by Merle Kratzer, and French Horn solo by Earl Dunn. Helen Davis will play a Bass Clarinet solo at a special audition at the State Contest, because of lack of competition. If her audition is satisfactory, she will be qualified to participate in the National Music Contest.

In the latter part of March the Band, in conjunction with the Glee Clubs, presented a concert of contest pieces. The Band also presented a concert the latter part of April, and participated in the County Spring Music Festival at Earlville early in May.

At the time the annual goes to press, it is impossible to know how the participants in the District Contest will be rated, but since all concerned have worked diligently it is safe to say that they will perform to the credit of M.H.S.

Mr. Odegaard is the director of the Band, and should be highly congratulated upon the fine work he has done in developing the musical talent of Manchester.
